Here WE Go again!

40 school bags are ready to be picked up. my Suitcase and Backpack went through the controls although they had some extra kilos without problem Thanks to the Lady working at the check-in counter WHO was able to "donate" through letting me pass.. with all the stuff I have packed for the village...She said that this could be her way of supporting our school bag delivery and yes.. everywhere You can meet great people...shiny people
...☀️☀️☀️☀️Looking forward to fulfilling this years' christmas mission...😁... although.. No beard. I feel like Santa Claus
